markers. This cemetery is close to the Frye or Fry Cemetery. NOTE: There is another Billings Cemetery. (Not shown on Kelsey Peak 1989 USGS Quad. map.)

BILLINGS

A 0.01 3 ? T34S R11W S7

Located on a hill on the Big Bend Ranch near the Foster Creek Bridge, between Agness-Illahe Road and Billings Road (private). There are 8 known graves of the Billings and Fry families, but only 2 markers were there in the mid. 1960's. (Not shown on Illahe 1989 USGS Quad. map.)

CAPE BLANCO PIONEER

AKA: 1. CAPE BLANCO CATHOLIC
2. HUGHES
FAMILY

Located in Cape Blanco State Park. The old cemetery is about 1 mile short of the Cape Blanco lighthouse and about 200 feet to the left (south) of the Cape Blanco Highway as it climbs up onto the plateau that overlooks the Sixes River. In a field there remain 6 headstones, but the bodies were removed to Mt. Calvary Cemetery in Portland in 1938. {September 1991} (Cape Blanco 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

CARPENTER

AKA: 1. SNODGRASS
FAMILY

A ? ? ? T39S R14W ?

There are 4 graves at the Snodgrass Farm at Carpenterville. This is located on the old alignment of U.S. Hwy. 101, now called Carpenterville Frontage Road 18 miles north of Brookings NOTE: This site is on private property. No other information was given in the report. (Carpenterville 1986 USGS Quad. map shows 1 grave in Section 3.)

CLARNO SPRINGS

ELEPHANT ROCK

A ? 5 ? T32S R14W S11
 Located near Sixes River and Elephant Rock Creek. NOTE: No other information was given in the report. (Not shown on Mount Butler 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

FORT HILL

 Reportedly two soldiers are buried near Port Orford. There may be some confusion here. The two blockhouses built at Fort Point, by Captain William Tichenor's second expedition in July 1851, was not the same as Fort Orford, established in November 1851 by the U.S. Army. Fort Orford was a few hundred feet northwest of the civilian Fort Orford on Fort Point. It seems more probable that soldiers would be buried near the Army's fort. The military Fort Orford was garrisoned until 1856. Both block houses were destroyed by fire on 10 October 1868. This is close to the Tichenor Cemetery. (Not shown on Port Orford 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

FOSTER BAR

 Located on top of a knoll between Foster Creek and the road to Powers at Big Bend. 300 yards up the hill is the burial site of 6 soldiers who died in the battle of Big Bend.

NOTE: This is in the same section that the Illahe Cemetery AKA: Foster Creek Cemetery is in, but apparently they are 2 separate burial sites. (Not shown on Illahe 1989 USGS Quad. map.)

FOX HILL

This cemetery is at Ophir; on the west side of U.S. Hwy. 101 and north of the mouth of Euchre Creek on a hill. NOTE: This site is on private property and the stones are now gone. (Ophir 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

FRYE FAMILY AKA: 1. FRY

A 0.01 ? ? T33S R10W ?
Located very close to the quarter corner between Sections 1 and 2. The cemetery is located on the C. J. Frye Homestead about 300 feet below the site of Fort Lamerick. Lewis McArthur's Oregon Geographic Names and Metsker Landownership Atlas spell the name Frye. Mrs. Wooldridge spells it Fry. (Not shown on Kelsey Peak 1989 USGS Quad. map.)

GEISEL FAMILY

A 0.1 1 22 Feb 1856 T36S R15W S1
Located near U.S. Hwy. 101 in the Geisel State Wayside a mile south of Nesika Beach. John Geisel and three sons were killed by Indians. {September 1991} (Gold Beach 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

GIBBS FAMILY

A ? ? 1889 T31S R13W ?
There are five known burials at Eckley, perhaps in Section 36. NOTE: No other information given in the report. (Not shown on Barklow Mtn. 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

HAINES

NAVY MONUMENT AKA: 1. AIRMEN, 8

A ? 4 30 Jan. 1945 UNSURVEYED
 Although the area is unsurveyed, the U.S. Forest Service projects that the site would be in Township 39 South, Range 11 West, Section 33. The Oregon Journal reports in a later newspaper article on 31 January 1972: A Catalina Amphibious Patrol Bomber (PB5A) flying from Terminal Island, San Pedro, to Sand Point, Seattle, crashed about 3:00 P.M. and all 8 men were killed. The plane struck trees on a mountainside at about 2000 feet elevation. The bodies were buried about half way down in the canyon. An 8-foot concrete monument was erected in 1957." This is 36 miles east of Brookings and in the present Kalmiopsis Wilderness Area. Take Chetco River Road to Forest Service Road #1909 and then Spur Road #261 for another 1.3 miles at the South Fork of the Chetco and Quail Prairie Creek. Go up Quail Prairie Creek to the end of the road at Vulcan Lake/Vulcan Peak turnaround. Take Trail #1210 for 1.3 miles south on ridgetop. Then turn off onto Trail #1105 and then to the right again onto Trail #1105-A. The burials should be downhill to the right, in the canyon of the South Fork of the Chetco River, after a short but steep walk. NOTE: The site is marked on the Siskiyou National Forest map, 1984, about 1.5 miles downstream from Cottonwood Camp. Please check with the Forestry Service before visiting this site. Hwy. 101 at Milepost 330.3 and turn inland on Hunter Creek Loop. The cemetery access road is only 0.1 of a mile east of U.S. Hwy. 101 and leads up a hill to the left (north). The owner told the compiler that this cemetery is already mostly reserved and he plans to start a new cemetery at Nesika Beach north of Gold Beach. {25 May 1996} (Gold Beach 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

RUMLEY HILL
AKA: 1. BAGNELL
FERRY

B 0.25 2 ? T36S R14W S9
Leave U.S. Hwy. 101 at Wedderburn; go 5 miles on North Bank Rogue River Road. Turn left onto Squaw Valley Road for 0.9 of a mile, then turn left uphill for 0.3 of a mile to the cemetery. It overlooks the Rogue River. There are 20 graves. NOTE: This site appears to be on private property. (Signal Buttes 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

SIXES

Located on Dry Creek, where a slide buried alive some Chinese miners. This was probably on the east bank of Dry Creek at its confluence with the Sixes River. A mining company still owned land there, in 1932, on the south bank of the Sixes River. The Sixes River Road runs along the north bank. (Not shown on Sixes 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

SKOOKUMHOUSE

A 0.01 ? ? T36S R13W ?
There are 2 burials on the John Ingleman Place, along the Rogue River, but it is unclear to the compiler on which side. NOTE: This is on private property. No other information was given in the report. (Not shown on Quosatana Butte 1989 USGS Quad. map.)

SMITH FAMILY

Located in the vicinity of Agness on the south side of the Rogue River. Leave the west end of the bridge over the Illinois River opposite Agness and go about 0.35 of a mile west to cross Tom Fry Creek. Continue on this Siskiyou Forest Road #33 another 0.2

of a mile and turn off to the right on a side road towards the river. Go about 0.25 of a mile and the graves are about 40 yards to the left. (Agness 1989 USGS Quad. map.)

 Located south of Gold Beach on the old highway on the east side of Hunter Creek Loop, at a trailer park. There are 14 names on 1 stone. It is believed that 1821 is too early of a death date. {September 1991}
 (Gold Beach 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

SMITH, SERGEANT

A 0.01 5 ? T41S R13W S7

SNYDER'S LODGE

? 0.01 ? ? ? ? ?
 Located in a meadow near a turnout from the Powers-Illahe Road is the burial of a Mrs. White, mother of Rolly White. NOTE: No other information was given in the report.

THOMPSON FLAT

AKA: 1. TOMPKINS
 FLAT

A ? 5 ? T32S R13W S22
 Located on the Upper South Fork of the Sixes River, about 0.5 of a mile or 0.75 of a mile upstream from Huckleberry Knoll. (Barklow Mtn. 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

THRIFT RANCH

A ? 3 1855 T32S R15W ?

TICHENOR

 This private cemetery is located on top of a hill in the western part of Port Orford. Take 9th Street west off of U.S. Hwy. 101 for two blocks. Then turn left (southerly) onto Coast Guard Road. Turn right (north) after about another 0.25 of a mile to the cemetery at the top of the hill. There is a fenced lot and a curbed lot plus some scattered markers. In October 1962 researchers tallied 24 known burials. The compiler found 3 more recent markers and more may have been hidden in the tall grass. {26 May 1996} (Port Orford 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

TRUAX BABY

A 0.01 ? ? T30S R14W S23
This is an unmarked grave, 0.25 of a mile off of Langlois Mountain Road at the Truax Place in the Floras Creek district. NOTE: This is on private property. No other information was given in the report. (Not shown on Calf Ranch Mountain 1985 USGS Quad. map.)

UNKNOWN

Located in Boardman State Park at the mouth of Hooskanaden Creek, on U.S. Hwy. 101. (Not shown on Carpenterville 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

UNKNOWN

This burial is near Thomas Creek Bridge on U.S. Hwy. 101, in Boardman State Park. (Not shown on Carpenterville 1986 USGS Quad. map.)

VAN PELT

A 0.1 5 1895 T41S R13W S4
Leave Brookings, heading south on U.S. Hwy. 101. Cross the Chetco River Bridge into the community of Harbor. Drive 0.7 of a mile from the south end of the bridge to the Hoffeldt Lane intersection. Turn left (east) onto East Hoffeldt Lane, driving 0.25 of a mile to the end of the county maintenance; continue ahead on a one-lane driveway for another 0.15 of a mile to the end. The cemetery is at the end and just above the north bank of Tuttle Creek. On Hiram Tuttle D.L.C. #38, RB #2070. NOTE: this site is on private property. (Mt. Emily 1989 USGS Quad. map.)

WARD MEMORIAL	C 15 1 1936 T40S R13W S31 Located west off of 7th Street along the north city limits of Brookings. This is the principle cemetery for the city. (Brookings 1986 USGS Quad. map.)
WELLS, GRANDMA	A 0.01 ? ? T31S R13W ? Perhaps located in Section 36. Grandma Wells died sometime between 1900 and 1905 and is buried at Eckley. (Not shown on Barklow Mtn. 1986 USGS Quad. map.)
WEST, WILLIAM ROBERT	A 0.01 5 14 Nov 1923 T30S R14W ? Located about 12 miles east of Langlois. The West grave is unmarked; on the West Place on the North Fork of Floras Creek. NOTE: This site is on private property. (Not shown on Calf Ranch Mtn. 1985 USGS Quad. map.)
WHEELER CREEK	A ? 5 ? T41S R12W S3 Located near the Winchuck River; at Ludlum House Campground on Wheeler Creek Road (Forestry Road #1108) in the Siskiyou National Forest. (Not shown on Fourth of July Creek 1989 USGS Quad. map.)
WHEELER, JAMES P.	A 0.01 2 1903 T41S R12W S10 Cross the Chetco River Bridge from Brookings to Harbor and drive south 3.1 miles on U.S. Hwy. 101. Turn left (east) onto Winchuck River Road and drive to the end of the paving at Elk Creek. Continue about 0.6 of a mile and about 50 yards past the junction of Elk Mountain Trail; the grave is on the right (south). You are about 7.5 miles from U.S. Hwy. 101 and a mile short of Winchuck Forest Camp. {September 1991} (Fourth of July Creek 1989 USGS Quad. map.)
WILSON RANCH, BEVERLY	A ? ? 30 Jul 1865 T14S R13W ? This ranch is south of Brookings between the Chetco and Winchuck Rivers and facing the ocean. The overloaded steamship "Brother Jonathan" out of San Fransisco was caught in a storm on 30 July 1865. The captain tried
