

LOUIS A. SANDOZ, who resides on Mill creek, a few miles out from The Dalles, was born in Switzerland, on May 24, 1850. His parents are Frederick L. and Julienne (Fry) Sandoz. After receiving his education and an especially fine training in landscape gardening in his native country, he came to the United States, and on January 2, 1868, landed in New York, then went to Illinois. He did gardening there for six years, then went to California and in Menlo Park and various other places followed his profession. He did some very choice work, especially in private gardens of millionaires in that country, and he was known as a most skillful and talented artist in his line. In 1879, a few months after his brother, who is mentioned in another portion of this work, Mr. Sandoz came to Wasco county. He purchased ninety-eight acres of the old Caldwell donation claim and since that time has given his attention to fruit raising and gardening. He has a very beautiful place and is a thrifty and progressive man.

On January 2, 1888, Mr. Sandoz married Mrs. Kate Hunter, who was born in New Jersey, the daughter of Edward and Kate (Nilligan) Murphy, natives of Ireland. The mother is deceased and the father dwells in New Jersey. Besides the brother mentioned, our subject has two brothers, Henry and August, in California, and one sister, Mrs. Emily Marre, in Switzerland. Mrs. Sandoz has four sisters residing in New Jersey. To our subject and his wife the following named children have been born: Eileen, Isabelle, Catherine, Arnold, Edward and Rollen. In politics, Mr. Sandoz is Democratic, and in educational matters he is active and progressive. He has served three terms as school director and gave universal satisfaction in that capacity.
