These listed marriages and marriage licenses for Grant County, Oregon were taken from the two oldest volumes in the Court House. The dates without parenthesis are marriage dates. With parenthesis the dates indicate a license issued. The list is in alphabetical order by the surname of both the male and female; however, the dates are given only when the male is listed first.

GRANT COUNTY CEMETERIES-

Copied by Jeanne M. Secord, Lura Glass with assistance from Lavina Hutchinson With appreciation to the late George Childers who did similar work in 1959 and thus provided a check list guide
With thanks to the many county folk who gave information about old cemeteries and private burial plots

There are 36 graves marked "Unknown"
in the Canyon City Cemetery.
Outside the cemetery fences at the entrance are the graves of 4 or 5 criminals who were hung in early days. They are unmarked.

AUSTIN CEMETERY -

It is located in a grove of trees NE of town on the Henry Ricco ranch.Cattle range thru it and old,rotted fallen trees cover the area.The markers were rough stones scratched upon so what few we found left standing were difficult to read.Austin was a thriving railroad and mining center in 1918 with 2 mills, 2 hotels,cattle yards for shipping,business houses,and Forest Service bldg.Today there stands four deserted business houses, much decayed,and the residences
of about 5 families.

It was mostly children who were buried there;however,in 19 18 when the Spanish Flu epidemic swept the nation,four victims were buried there in canvass bags as a railroad strike prevented coffins from being shipped in.

Scratched on one marker was:
T M P c

K.E.Meadows 1934-1934

GRANITE CEMETERY

There are 31 graves in this cemetery that have no markers or names. There seems to have been a lot of children's graves.

Greenhorn was once a thriving city of about 800 about 1913. There were a number of mines in the vicinity. 53 acres were set aside before 1865 to make this U.S. Townsite (which it still remains under direct supervision of Wash. D.C.) Caretaker Guy Miller showed us where the cemetery had been located and the last traces of about three graves are slightly discernable, but since the markers were all made of wood, time has obliterated them.

The road is difficult in an ordinary car even in summer, and becomes impassable in winter. We refer to the southern hwy. There is an entrance from the Baker county in the NE.

There was also a cemetery at W hitney which time also has erased.

SUMPTER CEMETERY by LaVina Hutchinson...

This cemetery is located in Baker County. The Sumpter Valley Railroad was an important link between the growing city of Baker, and PC and the John Day Valley in early years of this county. The people from PC and Austin were often buried in Sumpter or in Baker. The cemetery is uncared for and is today covered with sage and trees. Mrs. Hutchinson counted at least 66 unmarked graves.
